2. Currently, we do not require masks in our space. Please know that this may change at ANY time if the health climate of our local area changes. The health and safety of our customers is our priority.
Initials _____
3. SICK POLICY: If you/your child are home sick from work/school, please do not come in. If your child is recovering from a virus, please remember that the standard procedure for viral illness is a 24 hour fever-free period, WITHOUT the aid of medication, once the fever breaks.
Initials _____
4. HAND WASHING: Please wash everyone's hands with soap and warm water as soon as you get here. The bathroom is located right down the hall. We try our best to maintain a germ-free environment, so please re-wash frequently if needed.
Initials _____
5. The Nest is NOT a nut-free space.
Initials _____
6. The toys and equipment at The Nest must be used as intended. Please make sure your children are playing with our toys with care. We hope to be able to keep our toys for everyone to enjoy for years to come.
Initials _____
7. Shoes are not allowed past the front entrance - please store your shoes under the bench. Socks must be worn at all times - we have socks available for purchase if needed.
Initials _____

8. Diapers should only be changed on the changing pad in the hallway. Please read the instructions near the changing table to make sure the space stays clean and usable for everyone. Please let a staff member know immediately if someone has an accident in the space so we can get things cleaned up as quickly as possible.

Initials _____

9. We don't allow food inside the play space. Please serve any food at the tables in the hallway.

Initials _____

10. The Nest is not responsible for loss, damage, or theft of personal effects. This includes, but is not limited to, items placed in cubbies, on coat hooks, or anywhere else within our space. The Nest is not responsible for items that are lost or damaged while playing.

Initials _____

11. We request that you encourage your child(ren) to listen to and abide by any instructions given by employees of The Nest.

Initials _____

12. At its own discretion, The Nest can refuse to allow the use of its facilities and equipment to anyone it so chooses. Violation of Policies and Procedures may result in having to leave The Nest and no refund will be given.
